

English Literature

Faculty: English and Media

Exam Board: AQA

Course Title: A Level English Literature
Spec B (7717)

Course content:

- Paper 1A: Aspects of tragedy
- Paper 2B: Elements of political and social protest
- Non-exam assessment: Theory and Independence

Why study this course?

Studying A Level English Literature hones critical thinking and communication skills, fosters a love for diverse literary works, and enhances employability.

Where could this course take you?

Enrichment:

- Theatre visits
- University taster days
- Guest speaker sessions

University Courses:

English Literature, History, Law,
Journalism, Teaching

Read, Watch and Listen

Listen

BBC Radio 3 - The Shakespeare Sessions, Othello: What it means to be

Read

a Moor
Account sign-in | English & Media Centre
(englishandmedia.co.uk)

Watch

Drama Online - Home
(dramaonlinelibrary.com)

Online links

Course Spec:

<https://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/english/as-and-a-level/english-literature-b-7716-7717>

Seneca: Othello - English Lit: AQA A Level Othello \(senecalearning.com\)

For further information please contact the Sixth Form team (Sixthformupdates@nottinghamgirlsacademy.org) who will be happy to forward your email to the relevant department.

