

History A-Level

Faculty: Humanities

Exam Board: AQA

Course Title: AQA History A-Level

Course content:

- Paper 1: 1D Stuart Britain and the Crisis of Monarchy 1603-1702
- Paper 2: 2R The Cold War, 1945-1991
- NEA Coursework: The US Civil Rights Movement 1863-1963

Why study this course?

History is an ideal and important basis for many careers. Many employers actively encourage History graduates to join their teams because of their ability to think logically AND laterally at the same time.

Where could this course take you?

Enrichment:

Lessons to Auschwitz - Day visit to Poland

University Courses:

History, Law, Politics, Art History, PPE

Read, Watch and Listen

Listen

In Our Time - The Divine Right of Kings - BBC Sounds

Read

Cold War Literature on Surviving an Atomic Attack is Stranger Than Science Fiction | History Hit

Watch

Cold War in 9 Minutes - Manny Man Does History \(youtube.com\)

Online links

Course Spec: AQA | History | AS and A-level | History

For further information please contact the Sixth Form team (Sixthformupdates@nottinghamgirlsacademy.org) who will be happy to forward your email to the relevant department.

